

BC/BE RHEUMATOLOGIST

Slocum Dickson Medical Group, PLLC is seeking a RHEUMATOLOGIST to join our highly successful Rheumatology Department.

The physicians perform consultations in a state of the art facility with on site lab and radiology services available.

Slocum Dickson Medical Group is a physician-owned and physician-run multi-specialty group. Established in 1938, we have over 80 years experience in the health care profession now offering over 100 physicians and mid-level providers in nearly all medical and surgical specialties. We have grown to become one of the largest multi-specialty groups in the Central New York region and look to expand our availability to our communities with expanded specialty and primary care services. We offer a professional stimulating practice, which includes a competitive salary with a comprehensive benefit package, two year employment to full partnership and a predictable work schedule. Our growing group offers multiple services under one roof for the convenience of both physicians and patients.

Our area offers a safe, friendly uncongested community. We are located in the rolling hills of Central New York. In close proximity are the cities of Syracuse, Cooperstown, Saratoga and Albany. Within easy driving distance are Boston, New York City, Toronto, Montreal, Washington D.C., Philadelphia and Rochester. The beautiful surrounding Adirondack Park is a source of countless recreational activities. The city of Utica and surrounding townships offer a good range of educational and cultural facilities. The area's public and parochial schools rate among the best in the country.
