

Reauthorization Act (CHIPRA)

Since 2009, special enrollment rights to immediately enroll in an employer's health plan arise if an individual becomes eligible for a state premium assistance subsidy under Medicaid or CHIP. The subsidy helps low-income individuals pay for employer coverage, transferring them from government-sponsored health programs to employer health plans. CHIPRA imposes a notice requirement on employers who maintain health plans with participants residing in one of the states providing a premium assistance subsidy. The notice must be provided annually to all employees residing in each premium assistance subsidy state, including employees not enrolled in the plan.

Premium Assistance Under Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP)

If you or your children are eligible for Medicaid or CHIP and you're eligible for health coverage from your employer, your state may have a premium assistance program that can help pay for coverage, using funds from their Medicaid or CHIP programs. If you or your children aren't eligible for Medicaid or CHIP, you won't be eligible for these premium assistance programs but you may be able to buy individual insurance coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace. For more information, visit www.healthcare.gov.

If you or your dependents are already enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP and you live in a State listed below, contact your State Medicaid or CHIP office to find out if premium assistance is available.

If you or your dependents are NOT currently enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP, and you think you or any of your dependents might be eligible for either of these programs, contact your State Medicaid or CHIP office or dial 1-877-KIDS NOW or www.insurekidsnow.gov to find out how to apply. If you qualify, ask your state if it has a program that might help you pay the premiums for an employer-sponsored plan. If you or your dependents are eligible for premium assistance under Medicaid or CHIP, as well as eligible under your employer plan, your employer must allow you to enroll in your employer plan if you aren't already enrolled. This is called a "special enrollment" opportunity, and you must request coverage within 60 days of being determined eligible for premium assistance. If you have questions about enrolling in your employer plan, contact the Department of Labor at www.askebsa.dol.gov or call 1-866-444-EBSA (3272).

If you live in one of the following states, you may be eligible for assistance paying your employer health plan premiums. The following list of states is current as of July 31, 2023. Contact your State for more information on eligibility –

Mental Health and Substance Abuse Parity

The Mental Health Parity Act of 1996 prohibits group health plans from having lower annual or aggregate lifetime dollar limits for mental health benefits than for medical/surgical benefits. The Paul Wellstone and Pete Domenici Mental Health Parity and Addiction Equity Act of 2008 (MHPAEA) broadened the parity requirements by making them applicable to substance use disorder benefits and by mandating parity for financial requirements and treatment limitations. In general, a plan may not impose a financial requirement (deductible, copay, etc.) or quantitative treatment limitation on a mental health/substance abuse benefit in a classification that is more restrictive than the predominant requirement or limitation applied to substantially all medical/surgical benefits in the same classification. Plans must be tested for compliance with the parity law. While not required to be done annually, it should be done when there is a change to plan design (e.g., to a cost sharing or utilization management provision) that affects a financial or treatment limitation within a defined classification or sub-classification. Plans also may not impose nonquantitative treatment limits (NQTLs) for mental health/substance abuse benefits unless certain conditions are met. Since February 10, 2021, group health plans must complete a comparative analysis that demonstrates that the processes, strategies, evidentiary standards or other factors used to apply any NQTL to the plan's mental health and substance use disorder benefits are comparable to, and applied no more stringently than, the processes, strategies, evidentiary standards and other factors used to apply NQTLs to medical or surgical benefits.
